To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Chris Wong professionally for over ten years. Chris joined our company, Cerius Technology Group, Inc. eight years ago. During that time, I have found Chris to be an extremely professional, competent, knowledgeable and effective systems engineer. Her problem solving skills are enormous. She communicates very effectively. Her documentation and organization skills are superb. Her knowledge of computer systems and networks is very broad, yet deep. I can always count on Chris to follow through on her commitments and she is always honest with me.

Our company has a great deal of respect for Chris and always look forward to working with her on any project.

Please feel free to call me at (425) 391-3945, if you have any questions. I can give my highest personal and professional recommendation to you, for Chris.

Sincerely,

Kirk Olson
Vice President
